Dear Principal Smith,

I'm writing to you about my son William. He has been a tenth-grader at ABC High since we moved here from Indiana in July. His homeroom teacher is Jane Wallis. He seemed happy there at first, but recently his behavior has changed. He has been neglecting his studies and his test scores in math, science and world history have been getting worse. He has also stopped participating in basketball practices even though he's on the team. He is often moody and withdrawn. When I ask him what is troubling him, he refuses to answer. I would like to meet you at the school as soon as possible to discuss William's problems and how we can solve them. Please let me know when you are available.

Sincerely,

Paula Anderson

Dear business owner,

I'm a senior at ABC High School. My classmates and I want to have some repairs done at XYZ park and we were wondering if you could help us. As you know, few families with young children visit the park these days because the swings are broken, most of the grass has died and the benches need replacing. We want these kids to be able to play there like we did when we were their age. We have contacted a local construction company, which has promised to do the work for free if we pay for the materials. We need to raise $3,000 to buy wood, paint, seeds and fertilizer.

If you want to make a donation, please contact us at 044-XXX-222.

Anna:

Long time no see. I hope you're enjoying your new job at ABC Magazine. You're so lucky to be working there. I'm very envious.

I hope you don't mind, but I want to ask you for some advice. During the summer vacation, I'm planning to travel around France. In the first semester, I took a course on European architecture and I want to see some of the buildings I've been reading about with my own eyes. I'm going to go to Paris and Provence. This will be my first solo trip abroad and to be honest, I'm a little nervous. There are so many stories on the internet about women traveling on their own being robbed and attacked. If you could give me some tips on what to prepare to stay safe, I'd appreciate it.
